

Thunder Bay Area Fall Newsletter 2009

Welcome to our first AECEO email newsletter! My name is Mandy DeJardine and I am the current president of the Thunder Bay branch of the AECEO. I am excited to keep you informed of upcoming events, workshops and professional development by email newsletter on a quarterly basis. I am currently at home on maternity leave and I will return back into the field in January 2010. Please feel free to contact me with questions, concerns or ideas at any time by phone (807)622-3942 or by email daveandmandy@tbaytel.net I look forward to seeing you at the many upcoming events!

Meet the Students Night

Our annual Meet the Students Night is quickly approaching. It will be held at Communities Together for Children on MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 28TH from 6:30-8:30pm. Come and join us for a night of food, fun, prizes and networking. Catch up with old friends and meet new ones along the way! If you would like to volunteer or make a prize donation, please contact Lina Maclam at 622-6910. Everyone is welcome!

Festival of the Recyclables

Due to the success of last year's event, we will be holding another Festival of Recyclables. It will be held on Saturday, October 17th at the Monty Parks Centre from 1-3 p.m. Booths will be set up with exciting crafts and activities for the children. Come and enjoy the entertainment and the beautiful fall scenery while sipping on some hot chocolate with your family. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer for this event, please contact Kelly Massaro-Joblin at 622-6910.

Want to know more about Dr. Pascal's Early Learning Advisor's Report and how it will affect the early years profession? Stay tuned for an upcoming workshop in November. Details soon to follow!!
